Thanksgiving Friends, New and Old

Consul General Brian Quigley, his wife Cynthia, and their two children joined the Cuenca Soup Kitchen volunteers, and our Hearts of Gold family for a potluck Thanksgiving celebration.

The day was filled with festive treats including turkey, stuffing, side dishes and a dozen different desserts. Special thanks to the Quigleys for spoiling us with real Tollhouse cookies!

Thanks to Hearts of Gold for providing the location and thanks to our friend Rosana Malo of Trebol Roses for the beautiful flowers.

Those in Need Receive Meaningful Gifts

The CSK volunteers and supporters have worked to turn your gifts into wishes granted for the almost 200 children in our beneficiary families.

Every child will receive a meaningful gift. Wishes included: books, clothing for school, and a bed.

Burt and Evelyn Johnson have donated their expertise and are giving photo portraits of each child.

To-go Christmas meals including treats made by our birthday abuelitas, potato salad made by Orlando at Sunrise Cafe and donated by generous volunteers, and sandwiches provided by Hearts of Gold, will be given to each of our families.

Finally, each food kit will include a chicken. This is the gift that brings a moment for happy tears.

Thank you for your big hearts and loving gifts.
